SONY ERICSSON WTA TOUR

“It is absolutely imperative for our athletes to know precisely what they’re putting into their bodies. And with USANA’s guaranteed assurance of the quality of their products, our athletes can trust that they will be able to attain optimal health and fitness without the fear of violating the strict WADA (World Anti-Doping Agency) code they all adhere to.”

— Stacey Allaster, President, Sony Ericsson WTA Tour

US SPEEDSKATING TEAM

“US Speedskating thanks USANA for contributing to the sport of speedskating by meeting the nutritional demands of our athletes as we pursue greatness at the Vancouver Winter Olympic Games in 2010.”

— US Speedskating Team, 2008

USA LUGE

“USANA provides USA Luge with tested and trusted nutritional supplements. Their wide range of customizable products allows each member of our team to create the supplement program that works best for them. With our intense travel schedule, our athletes can’t always count on having all their nutritional needs met, but USANA closes that gap. Each athlete is different, and it’s a pleasure to work with USANA, a company that clearly understands this critical concept.”

— USA Luge, 2008

BIATHLON CANADA

“Biathlon is one of the most physically and mentally demanding sports on an athlete’s body. Our national team athletes train extensive hours throughout the year, and staying healthy is critical to their pursuit of excellence. We are delighted to be partnering with an industry leader in providing the highest quality nutritional products to ensure our athletes are ready to train and perform at their best each day.”

— Joanne Thomson, Executive Director, Biathlon Canada

SPEED SKATING CANADA

“For many years Speed Skating Canada’s unofficial motto has been ‘The Relentless Pursuit of Excellence’. To achieve excellence means to be partnered with excellence, and Speed Skating Canada is proud to have USANA as an official supplier to our national team athletes. We thank USANA for continuing to be a critical partner in our successes and quest for excellence.”

— Speed Skating Canada, 2008

CROSS COUNTRY CANADA

“USANA products have been pivotal over the past two years in providing our team with an extensive line of quality dietary supplements, guaranteed clean products, necessary for high performance training in the sport of cross-country skiing.”

— Tom Holland, Director of High Performance, Cross Country Canada
